

Tuesday 21st January

When the storms of life are raging, stand by me: when the world is tossing me, like a ship upon the sea: Lord, who rules the wind and water, stand by me.

Wednesday 22nd January

We pray that all veterans who have served our country will have homes and suitable financial support when they return from active service.

Thursday 23rd January

We pray for all with chronic illness that they may receive the help and support they need.

Friday 24th January

Let the light of faith shine in my heart.

Saturday 25th January

Thank you, Lord, for the love which crosses the boundaries of human brokenness and moves alongside us, bringing hope.

Sunday 26th January

Thank you for the wonders of Nature, new snowdrop life, busy squirrels and chirping birds and the beautiful surroundings of our village and county.

Monday 27th January

Thank you, Lord, for your constant love and faithfulness.

Tuesday 28th January

When I lose my way, you seek me out and bring me back.

Wednesday 29th January

We pray for all soldiers, sailors and airmen and their families and for those who suffer physical and mental damage as a result of carrying out their duties.

Thursday 30th January

We pray for all the organisations which encourage social interaction in the village, that they will continue to thrive and grow.

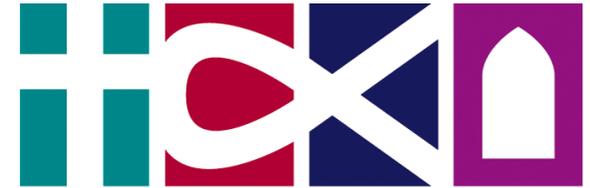

Friday 31st January

Living God, you watch over us in our waking and our sleeping. Help us spread your nourishing. Refreshing faith as we live out our lives.

Longniddry Parish Church (Church of Scotland)

Scottish Charity number SC016556

Longniddry Parish Church

PRAYER DIARY January 2020

Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Romans 12: 12-13

Wednesday 1st January

As we enter a new year we pray for new hope, new beginnings and renewal of faith in Christ and the way of life he embodied— loving God. Loving our neighbour and acting accordingly.

Thursday 2nd January

Lord, walk with us wherever this New Year leads, that in your company we may step out with confidence.

Friday 3rd January

Help allay our worries about the worldwide effects of climate change, causing fire, floods and drought which endanger life and the existence of your world. Please guide those who can make positive changes to make those changes.

Saturday 4th January

We pray for guidance to move away from being consumers to conservers both as individuals and as the human race.

Sunday 5th January

Thanks for all attendees, helpers and drivers of our Wednesday Club.

Monday 6th January

Dear Lord, be with those who face life without a loved one, that they will feel your loving presence enfolding them and receive love and support from those around them.

Tuesday 7th January

We pray for all those who are unemployed and can feel of little value as a consequence.

Wednesday 8th January

We pray for those who might feel lonely and isolated during long winter evenings and nights.

Thursday 9th January

Loving God, even when you seem to be most absent, you are ever present. Most silent, you are ever speaking; most distant, you are never closer.

Friday 10th January

We pray for those who cannot be employed due to illness, disability or other reason that they find meaningful ways to express who they are and what they can do.

Saturday 11th January

We pray for those who supply and help run the Foodbank and for those in difficult circumstances who are dependent on the essentials they provide.

Sunday 12th January

We ask a blessing and encouragement for those who feel their human dignity diminished.

Monday 13th January

We give thanks for all musicians who bring so much joy to people.

Tuesday 14th January

We need new life—for us, the nations and all the earth.

Wednesday 15th January

Lord, we thank you for the work of the Bethany Night Shelters. Please bless all who need a meal and a safe place to sleep on winter nights and the volunteers who give their time to work in the shelters.

Thursday 16th January.

Dear Lord, be with us in our struggles and help us find a constructive way forward.

Friday 17th January

God of joy, liberation and life, give us renewed life and purpose to follow in your ways.

Saturday 18th January

Let your face shine upon us and give us peace.

Sunday 19th January

We long for the end of exploitation of human life through human trafficking and modern slavery.

Monday 20th January

We pray for our world and for those who lead the nations—that they will stand up for justice and peace.