

Sunday 21st June

Remember those in the community who need support. May funding be available for ongoing provision of vital social care.

Monday 22nd June

Thank you for Dr Martin Fair, our Moderator, encouraging us with different ways to worship—"God's not finished with Scotland." May we also find creative ways to support the isolated and elderly.

Tuesday 23rd June

May we find ways to support charities as their fund raising is curtailed for a while and give money to support organisations such as our local foodbank, no longer receiving food directly.

Wednesday 24th June

Thank you for the many people who willingly use their gifts in so many different ways to keep our church community communicating and working together.

Thursday 25th June

We are horrified by the wars in our world. We pray for all innocent civilians, adults and children, caught up in the terror and the Covid pandemic.

Friday 26th June

We pray for young people as they cope with the difficulties and changes to their normal lives.

Saturday 27th June

We pray for wisdom, guidance and help for those who have problems with relationships within their family.

Sunday 28th June

'When you are discouraged, thinking all is lost, count your many blessings, name them one by one and it will surprise you what the Lord has done.' We pray for hope in the future and peace in our hearts.

Monday 29th June

Despite Lockdown, may we keep in touch with as many people in our community as possible.

Tuesday 30th June

Prayer from the Iona Community "May we preserve each other with sincere charity and peace".

Longniddry Parish Church (Church of Scotland)

Scottish Charity number SC016556

Longniddry Parish Church

PRAYER DIARY

JUNE 2020

I keep the Lord always before me;
Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Psalm 16:8

Monday 1st June

Thank you for June, for colourful gardens, leafy trees and improved air quality.

Tuesday 2nd June

We pray for our Queen at the anniversary of her coronation. May she have confidence in her faith as always.

Wednesday 3rd June

O Lord and Heavenly Father, we commend to your care those suffering distress and anxiety through loss of income and support at this difficult time.

Thursday 4th June

God of all loving, fill us with your Spirit, that we may do all things in love.

Friday 5th June

You bathe us in kindness and take away all that burdens us. You place upon us a yoke that is light and our souls find rest.

Saturday 6th June

Help us to think what we might say to bring hope and comfort to others.

Sunday 7th June

Lord, we thank you for all your gifts to us and pray that we will use them well and wisely.

Monday 8th June

We pray for loving support for all who are shielding or isolating and may be feeling very alone.

Tuesday 9th June

We give thanks for all those who support people in chaotic lives and provide for their needs.

Wednesday 10th June

We pray for our new moderator, Rev Dr Martin Fair as he starts his year in a different way without a General Assembly. Give him the confidence to support those anxious about living with the pandemic and its aftermath.

Thursday 11th June

We give thanks for our prayers which have been answered and for the help we get from kindly friends and neighbours.

Friday 12th June

We give thanks for communication old and new—cards, letters, landline, Zoom, Skype, mobile phones and social media and for those who work to provide them.

Saturday 13th June

We thank you for the many who gave their lives for freedom. “For our tomorrow they gave their today”.

Sunday 14th June

We ask your blessing on all who use and run foodbanks.

Monday 15th June

Loving Father, please be with all in nursing and care homes who cannot understand why no-one can visit them because of the corona virus pandemic. Thank you for the loving care given by their carers and comfort all concerned on the outside.

Tuesday 16th June

Help us to hear your still, small voice amidst the chatter and find peace and calm in our daily lives.

Wednesday 17th June

Through Christian Aid, in the face of many natural disasters, may we be compelled to help the many people suffering terribly in their day to day lives.

Thursday 18th June

We give thanks for all key workers bringing essential services to us—NHS, social care, gas, electric, communications, rubbish removal, sewerage, council workers etc. etc.

Friday 19th June

We remember those who have lost a loved one or close friend recently, and who now feel very lonely. God have mercy on those who are alone and bring caring helpers into their lives.

Saturday 20th June

Remember farmers and all who work to bring food to our tables.