"Reflective and uplifting in equal measure.
A captivating, beautifully performed collection of music."

Siskin Green are a contemporary Scottish Folk trio drawing on themes of faith, feminism and justice.

2023 Album

davidpyorks

A beautiful debut album - really hard to pick a favourite. A rich mix of themes and styles —the glory and the grey, indeed, with fire too—but ultimately laced with the infectious joy they seem to have had making it. If only more Christian music was like this... Favourite track: Canticle of the turning.

They have recorded songs for BBC Scotland's 'Reflections at the Quay' and BBC One's 'Songs of Praise' from the island of Iona.
